Western Federation of Miners d'Alene strike. Adopts Resolution.

WOULD BIND MEMBERS

PLAN TO MAKE VOTING COM-PULSORY.

Governor Steunenberg of Idoho is Stand During Recent Strike- his appointment; and Miners' convention today recommend- du ing that all local affiliated unions make it compulsory on their members to ex-of Miners to confer and correspond with the officers of all labor organizations, local and national, with a view to fur-thering each cause of labor through the only sensible and logical means at our command, the ballot box."

To Teach Economics.

A resolution was adopted providing for the a intment of a commission to investigate the advisability and practicability of establishing a college for the promulgation of true economic and political theories, similar to like colleges on the continent of Europe, said commission to report to the federation at its next annual convention.
A proposition to increase the appropriation of funds by assessment of members for co-operative mining was Delegate Rides' resolution, which had been suggested by his constituents, the Durango, Colo., Mine and Smeltermen's union, looking to the establishment of a co-operative smelter at Durango, was adopted. A committee was appointed to investigate the proposition and report at the next convention.

A law form for the licensing of all engineers employed at or around mines was adopted. W. R. Phelps was in-dersed for organizer should the federation decide to place an organizer in Bounty for Mrs. Corcoran.

The convention voted a bounty of $50 a month to the wife of Paul Corcoran and appropriated $50 a month toward the support of the families of ten other union miners who are imprisoned at San Quentin, Cal. Letters assuring sympathy and aid were ordered to be transmitted to the prisoners' wives. Corcoran was one of the active participants in the Coeur d'Alene strike, was imprisoned by General Merriam and afterwards sentenced to the Idaho penicentiary for seventeen The federation adopted a resolution disposing for the present with the plan to build a miners' home.

Steunenberg is Scored. In reference to Governor Steunen-berg of Idaho, the following resolution "Whereas, On the 3rd day of May, 1899, Frank Steumenberg, governor of Idaho, declared martial law in Shoshone county of said state, which has BOOM "LI" been continued and still continues arbitrarily without reason; and Whereas. The said governor trarily and without reason decided that the applicant must renounce the Western Federation of Miners; and "Whereas, The said governor of Ida without dictation from any one whom-tion of Miners, in convention assembled, that we condemn the arbitrary action of the said governor of Idaho as assumption worthy of the tyrants of the middle ages, and that such a man is unworthy of the respect and sup-port of liberty-loving people; and be

'Resolved, That we urge the voters of Idaho to refuse to support said Frank Steunenberg or any one who may give support to him to the end that the state of Idaho may be purged of the unjust, inhuman and freedom subverting administration of sai said Frank Steunenberg, Bartlett Sinclair and Attorney General Hays, and all who have supported said administra-tion and its unjust actions in said

After Justice Goddard.

Resolutions were also adopted calling upon Colorado laboring men to work for the defeat at the polls of Justice Goddard of the Colorado supreme court, should he come up. This action is on account of the decision of the Colorado supreme court on the eight-Letters of sympathy to the Wardner men now in San Quentin prison were presented and approved. The Western Labor union adopted resolutions which go into details of the Coeur d'Alene difficulties, reciting the story from the miners' standpoint, and denouncing President McKinley, General Merriam, Governor Steunenberg, Bartlett Sinclair and others for the part taken in the affair.

Labor Union Picks Officers. The Western Labor union is finishing up its routine work much more rapidly than was anticipated and the election Governor Smith is Dubious Over Recofficers today may be the prelude Daniel McDonald of Butte, Mont., was unanimously elected president. C. B. Nash of Spokane was chosen vice-fixed his signature to the commission president to succeed John Troxel of Major Martin Maginnis, who will Cripple Creek, the vote being also leave tonight for Washington and pre-unanimous. When the selection of secretary treasurer was reached there was a spirited contest between four or five ernor Smith said: "If the senate adopts candidates. M. J. Geiger was re-elect-ed. A resolution was adopted for the that Clark was never legally elected payment of $500 to Mr. Gleger for past and had nothing to resign, then my appointment of Major Maginnis may

One Name Kept Secret.

A member of the executive board was chosen by a rising vote, whose name is withheld, for the reason, it is understood, that he is at present in the Coeur d'Alenes, representing the union There are still four more members of the board to elect.

After the close of the convention here the executive board will go to Butte to adjust the Hennessy department store difficulty, and will stop at Ogden on the way to organize a local union

SPLIT OVER STEUNENBERG.

Democratic County Convention Passes Contradictory Resolutions.

Wallace, Ida., May 19.-The Democratic county convention split today over temporary organization, and over half of the delegates walked out. Those remaining elected delegates to the state conventions at Lewiston and Pocatello.

innocent men who have families to support the right to labor for their main-

The bolters formed a separate con vention, elected delegates and adopted a resolution commending Governor Steunenberg for his course in the Coeur

PROTESTS ON CLARK

(Continued from Page 1.)

apitol of Montana, his having been so timed that it would reach the office of the chief executive of the state of Montana during the absence of the governor of the state, and while the lieutenant governor was actwernor Steunenberg of Idoho is ing governor, and upon whom it is evident that they could confidently rely for the consummation of a scheme for Western Labor Union Elects Of-ficers and Scores McKinley.

"Whereas, All the circumstances surrounding the transaction indicate, and we believe, there was a conspiracy laid on the part of A. W. Clark and those who were associated with him in the contest before the legislative as-Denver, May 19.—A resolution was sembly of January, 1899, and who had adopted by the Western Federation of by false and fraudulent pretenses induced the governor of the state of Montana to absent himself therefrom, that the lieutenant-governor (evidently a party to the scheme) might be the ercise the elective franchise. Further acting chief executive for the purpose evidence of the federation intention of accepting the tendered resignation the Central Pacific." of going into politics was shown in the adoption of the following:

"Resolved. That a political committee be elected by the eighth arnual convention of the Western Federation of Miners to confer and correspond with of the entire country as well, pursuan to the conspiracy and manifesting a contempt for the senate of the United States and of the opinions of some of its most eminent and distinguished members, appointed Mr. Clark to the vacancy created by his own resigna-

"We, the undersigned citizens of the state of Montana, do most earnestly, emphatically and solemnly protest against the said W. A. Clark being al-lowed to take his seat in the senate of the United States under and by virtue of the appointment already referred to, until the senate, by its duly ap-pointed committee on privileges and may appear necessary and prop

The following statement is from this absent, having left for the purpose of attending the People's party national ing confirmatory of the San Francisco convention to be held at Sioux Falls, S. D. But by a singular coincidence, the latter official, who is Mr. 'Clark's personal friend and business assistant, left the convention before it had made its nominations or transacted any business and hurried back to Montana, ar riving in time to receive Mr. resignation from the hands of his son. Then within a very few hours after the resignation was received, and only about twenty-four hours before the governor's return, the lieutenant governor appointed Mr. Clark to fill the supposed vacancy.

'In this behalf, the undersigned allege, upon their information and be-lief that the governor of Montana was fraudulently and deceptively lured from the state by Mr. Clark, through Thomas Hinds, one of his recognized agents and political workers, for the express purpose of enabling Mr. Clark to resign in his absence and to be reinstated by the appointment of the lieutenant governor before the governor

BOOM "LITTLE MACK'S" SON.

Democratic Friends Want Congressman for Vice President.

New York, May 19.—A special to the perchance immediately interested in each person seeking employment in said county must make application for Herald from Washington says that a a permit to do so to one of the agents meeting of the friends of Congress of said governor; and man George B. McClellan, son of "Lit "Whereas, In making said application e applicant must renounce the Westn Federation of Miners; and "Whereas, The Mac," the former federal general who was the Democratic candidate for president in 1864, were talked to president in 1864. president in 1864, was held at Washington last night for the purpose of ho has by such arbitrary act violated the fundamental principles of right, justice and humanity guaranteed to the people by the constitution of the McClellan is the best man to strength. United States, which are the rights to en the Democratic ticket in those sections of the country where Mr. Bryan tions of is weak for the reason that he commands the confidence of the conserva-"Resolved, By the Western Federative New York Democracy. The reason of Miners, in convention assempaigns for congress in 1896 and 1898 he did not go on record either for or against the Chicago platform. Representative Stallings of Alabama, who was selected to make a statement in support of Mr. McClellan's candithat adopted at Chicago in 1836, the leading issues of the moment will be given a prominent place, namely, imperialism, trusts and militarism. The platform will unquestionably be of suc ha nature as all Democrats will be able to heartily indorse and enthusiastically support. 'The national leaders of the Demoparty have been giving a great deal of thought as to the selection for the second place upon the national ticket. The candidate for vice-president should be a conservative man, upon my wife to leave. I was unhappy coming from a doubtful state that can in the community, and hated the rebe carried by the Democracy. An analysis of conditions in all the possibly "We stayed away and lived happily loubtful states shows that the candidate must be nominated who is strongest in New York if we are to hope for

"It is useless to think of electing a Democratic president without the thirty-six electoral votes of the state of "Conservative Democratic leaders have been carefully canvassing the present situation, and have agreed outs. that the most available man for second place upon the ticket as Representa-tive George McClellan of New York."

MAGINNIS GETS HIS PAPERS.

ognition of Appointment. Helena, Mont., May 19 .- Governor Smith reached Helena today and af-not be recognized."

RICH GEMS FOR DAUGHTER.

Senator Clark Does Not Forget Her Approaching Wedding.

New York, May 19.-It is now announced that Senator Clark will give his daughter, Miss Katherine Clark, jewels valued at $85,000, upon the oc-casion of her marriage to Dr. Lewis Rutherford Morris.

Six thousand wedding invitations will did it. be issued and it is said that the total cost of the wedding will be at least

Cheer James H. Lewis.

Spokane, Wash., May 19.-The Democratic state convention is in session here today to choose eight delegates and eight alternates to the City national convention. Reference to Bryan for president and James Hamilton Lewis for vice-president was applauded

as accepted, and William R. Hearst was elected to succeed him The motion for the election of Mr. Hearst was made by Senator Jones. chairman of the Democratic national committee. Bradley Will Not Run Again. Frankfort, Ky., May 19.—Ex-Gover-or W. O. Bradley today gave out a statement that he will not be a can-didate for governor in the event the supreme court decides in favor of the Democrats in the contest cases, for election this fall. I would not be eligible," said he, "but even if I were I would not accept

LOS ANGELES LINE SEEMS SURE THING

(Continued from Page 1.) to interfere with the Southern Pacific's proposed cut-off between Los Angeles and Ogden and the east by way of the Carson & Colorado railroad. The latter route wil be by the way of Mojave, Keeler and probably Woodworth on DENIED BY LEIGHTON.

Los Angeles Man Says Huntington

Story is Untrue. Los Angeles, May 19.-President George B. Leighton of the Terminal Railroad company, who left for the east today said, in an interview just before his departure, that the story credited to C. P. Huntington that the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe roads would jointly build a road between Salt Lake and Los Angeles is "Stuff and nonsense." Mr. Leighton said:
"The Sait Lake road is to be built, of that there is no doubt; but neither the Southern Pacific nor the Santa Fe tue of the appointment already referred to, until the senate, by its dilly appointed committee on privileges and elections may make such inquiry as may appear necessary and proper as moment, of what I am saying, but I to the methods employed in bringing am under oath almost not to divulge

Silver Bow Citizens Object.

Another long protest signed by officials and citizens of Silver Bow county, the home both of Mr. Clark and of Mr. Daly, alleges that he appointment of Mr. Clark by the lieutenant governor is fraudulent.

What I know.

"Whoever does construct the new line will build it into Barstow, and that is also a certainty. Of course, Mr. Huntington has had surveyors in the field looking over the territory along the proposed new road, and so have also several others. The story of a combination of the proposed new road, and so have also several others. ollowing statement is from this and Salt Lake, to be built by the would like to do it myself. I'm in my right mind now anyway." absent, having left for the purpose of At Santa Fe local headquarters noth-dispatch could be learned today.

NEVER HEARD OF IT.

A. W. McCune Says Story is News to Him.

The proposed Salt Lake-Los Angeles line has been under discussion in railroad circles for many moons past, although the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe have never been seriously looked upon as having any designs upon the state of Utah in that direction. The more conservative railroad men locally are inclined to look upon the Huntington interview, as given above, more in the light of a bluff, just to see what the other fellows are doing," than real business.

When seen last night President A. W. McCune of the Utah & Pacific stated that he had seen the dispatch to the effect that the road would be built but as to details he was in entire ig-One thing was certain, he said, and that was he had not been consulted in the matter, and as a consequence the proposed road was in no way connected with the Utah & Pacific. The only inference to be drawn is that the Rio Grande Western is murder given by the

the proposed new road

(Continued from page 1.)

are brown and deep set, though larger than those of the average man. He every inch a farmer.

"Maybe you know what the Omish community is," said Moser. "It is a religion that drives men crazy. The mitted early Sunday evening. Mrs. religion that drives men crazy. The community lives around Tazewell county in Illinois, and my farm was right in the middle of them, three miles from Horton. They don't believe in acy, said:
"It is probable that, while the platorm will contain a reaffirmation of everything. Dancing is a crime, so is multy, had spent the entire day a from Horton. They don't believe in the services in the church near by They returned shortly after 6 o'clock.
"Mrs. Moser was in the cellar preform will contain a reaffirmation of that adopted at Chicago in 1896, the singing, and going to the theatres is a paring supper when her husband came months'-old baby in my arms, and be-fore the services opened the minister turned on me and called me an idola-tor; said I thought too much of my child and less of the church. I was angered. I swore I would not have "Moser is 30 years old and the anything more to do with a religion that teaches any man not to care for his family, and soon after that, that is for a while, but they sent for her an influenced her to go back into th ommunity. I would not go at the time, but a year wore on, and I could When I got back I was hated by the people. They did everything they could to break us up. I could not take friends to my own house on my wife's

"The children knew that their mother and father were not living happily, but their young minds didn't know the reason. They were growing up in their mother's religion. We didn't even take our meals together.
"I saw only one way out of it. That was to send them all into eternity and peace. I killed my wife and three babies as fast as I could empty my re-volver, and I am not sorry. I am glad they are at rest.

Story of the Crime.

"It was last Sunday morning, May 3. The children had been to church with their mother, and I was brooding over my trouble. They got back about dusk, and she went down cellar to cook supper, and sent the children out in the yard. I went after her down the stairs, and as soon as she turned toward me. I-Moser here paused for the first time

, then raised up and re-"Well, I shot her," he went on. "It only took one shot. She didn't suffer, and she knew who did it only for a in his narrative, and buried his face in his har's. He wept silently for a

"Then the boy-the oldest boy-came in, and I took him into the bedroom. shot him there before he knew who

Then I sent the youngest boy after a bucket of water, and as he went into the pantry I fired again. I shot him twice, because he moved.

"Then I went into the bedroom again and the 6-months-old girl was lying there. I shot her three times because little mite couldn't stand suffering. had made a complete job of it. All because I couldn't stand their religion.

"I intended to kill myself when I got away from there, but I would not lie in the Omish community. I covered the resignation of Governor Benton McMillan of Tennessee as president GOVERNMENT MAY YET RECOGNIZE BOER ENVOYS

be the outcome. But it is said that matic representatives.

Washington, May 19.—The credentials of the Boer delegates now in Washington will be submitted to the secretary of state Monday next. Colonel O'Beirne, private secretary of the delegation, called at the state department this morning and arranged with Secretary Hay that the Boer credentials should be submitted in advance of the presentation of the gentlemen themselves. This is in accordance with the usual course governing the presentation of foreign ministers.

It is said among certain officials of the delegates themselves. It is said among certain officials of the state department that if the government should consider it necessary to cast about for warrant for accepting the Boers officially it might turn to the Boer officially it might turn to the Boers officially of the Boers officially of the Boers officially of the clusion that the delegates are to be denied official recognition. That was the first decision and it may after all fering official recognition to their diplobusiness of Chinamen or from threat- already sustained.

LABOR UNIONS ARE ENJOINED FROM BOYCOTTING CHINAMEN

took the train for Bloomington, but I corner to the extreme west, similar just stopped there long enough to get a ticket to Kansas City, and when I got there I got another one to Denver and then to Colorado Springs. Oh, I and then to Colorate Spings.

didn't care where I went to, and the had no further news regarding the refirst think I knew I was here in Salt lief of Mafeking. Outside the building there is a scene of indescribable

Lake Thursday morning.
"The papers traveled faster than me, it seems like. I went into a news stand it seems like. I went into a news stand last night and got a Times-Herald and read about the murder of the Moser family, and I couldn't stand it any longer. I went out to the river. I shot myself and fell in. Everything was just as I wanted it to be, only the bullet didn't take its course. I would bullet didn't take its course. I would at this college, and he was presented bullet didn't take its course. I would to God it had gone into my brain. Then I could forget all this trouble, that is all I've got to live for. I pose they'll hang me. Well, I'm not trying to get away from it, but

Fisher Heard the Shot.

A. Fisher, proporietor of the brewery near where Moser made his attempt at suicide, heard the shot and fixes the time at 3 a. m. He paid little attention to it, however, thinking it was some drunken man out on the road. Sergeant Burbidge visited the spot yesterday afternoon and searched for Moser's gun, but he could not find it in the four feet of water. It was a thirty-two calibra.

thirty-two calibre. Chief Hilton would not have Moser and the put in jail last night, fearing he might make another and more successful attempt to destroy himself. He was at directive watched by an officer, but remained quiet all night.

The authorities of Tazewell county were at once notified of the finding of Moser and Chief Hilton received in reply the following dispatch: "Hold Samuel Moser tilk I can get there with proper papers. "JOHN D! MOUNT, Sheriff." The chief wired back that Moser would return without papers, the prisoner having signified his willingss to do so, and Sheriff Mount re-"Will be there Wednesday, May 23. South Africa. A dispatch from Win-burg, dated May 19, says:

Watch him closely that he does not company to the does

Following is the account of the which Moser read just before he tried to kill himself. Although the murder was committed on Sunday, the 13th, it is apparent from this that two elapsed before it was discovered. That being true, Moser had all of forty-eight hours the start of the Illinois officers, which probably accounts for his get-ting away so easily, and coming as far as Salt Lake without being molested. The article says:

'The most appalling crime in the history of Tazewell county was discovered today in the farm home of Sam Moser, three miles south of Horton, when the bodies of Mrs. Moser and her three litwears no beard. He is probably five feet eight or nine inches tail, and looks the husband and father, who had shot mob. them.

"The circumstances surrounding the and killed the children, firing one shot into the brain of each of his 7 and 5 year old sons and three into the body of his babe of 8 months. After cover-

"Moser is 30 years old and the son of Ben Moser, a highly esteemed old resident of Morton, worth nearly $100, 000. The murdered wife was about the two or three years ago, I prevailed upon my wife to leave. I was unhappy Hohulin of Goodfield, a preacher in the new Omish church. No cause is assigned for the crime."

BOERS STANDAT JOHANNESBURG MERCUR VISITED BY A FIRE

(Continued from Page 1.)

dreds of thousands of the working classes in the afternoon to some extent changed the character of the celebrations which, in the forenoon, had order and by many disgraceful incidents, more especially in the West End. Colonel Baden-Powell's house, which faces Hyde park, was all day the center of scenes which must have been extremely gratifying to his family, who constantly appeared on the balcony to bow their acknowledgements. In addition there was a continuous stream of carriages, bringing visitors leaving cards of congratulation.

When the art students procession, which was of great length, having been joined by many members of the best families, stopped in front of the house, the hero's mother and sister came to the window, evidently greatly moved. His sister fetched a large oil portrait of the colonel, wreathed in laureis, and placed it conspicuously on the balcony. When the storm of cheers ceased for a moment the colonel's mother briefly addressed the crowd, expressing her not be saved, and the firemen turned heartfelt thanks to the demonstrators. the water onto the adjoining build-At about this time a beautifully apwere three ladies, each completely at-tired in one of the national colors, red Everywhere were seen processions and rarious bands in carnival or khaki attire, accompanied by pretty girls and There must have been millions of flags sold during the day. The whole city was covered with them.

This loss on the two buildings will be about $2,000. He had just insured it for a small amount. Annabel O'Neil saved a portion of her goods. The Seething Mass of Humanity.

From Charing Cross to the Mansion House is a seething mass of humanity, afoot, on the tops of omnibuses and in cabs and vehicles of all kinds, all wearing little flags, lavely in the conditions of the saved a portion of her goods. The building was not insured, and was worth about $1,500. The building torn down was occupied by J. Keiser, who saved all his household goods. There is a suspicion that the fire was conditionally and the saved and the saved all his household goods. A resolution passed denounces "the infamous permit system which denies to workingmen their inherent right and manhood before being permitted to and manhood before being permitted to seek employment, and which deprives and manhood before being permitted to feek employment, and which deprives and manhood before being permitted to feek employment, and which deprives are cabs and vehicles of all kinds, all wearling inglittle flags, loyal badges and vehicles of all kinds, all wearling inglittle flags, loyal badges and vehicles of all kinds, all wearling inglittle flags, loyal badges and vehicles of all kinds, all wearling inglittle flags, loyal badges and locked them up in the bodies up with carpets and dresses and locked them up in the house. I left them as they were for I didn't want them to find them all together. Then I walked over to Tremont and recadilly, and from Hyde Park

News Scarce From Mafeking. The war office at 9 o'clock tonight

From provincial towns everywhere at this college, and he was presented to the queen. The queen inspected the cloak worn by the Duke of Wellington at aWterloo. Both on her journey to crowds of Mafeking demonstrators.

Both the queen and Lord Salisbury have replied to many telegrams of congratulations from the mayors of provincial towns. During the course of the afternoon the police found difficulty in keeping

'The queen received on Friday night

fers to the receipt by her majesty of a copy of the Associated Press dispatch from Pretoria, is that it is the first offi-cial intimation of the relief of Mafeking, and it would not have been made had any doubts existed in the official mind as to the correctness of the news.
"Meanwhile, the usual Saturday night's silence covers the seat of war.
Cables are mainly composed of reports
From

"General Rundle reached Trommel, twenty-eight miles from here on Fri- March. watching Rundle's movements.
"His men are in excellent form, in spite of the long daily marches.' Joy in New Castle.

A dispatch from Pietermaritzburg says: "The occupation of New Castle by General Buller has caused great jubilation. The magistrate and his staff, the mayor and the corporation have left for New Castle, Many fleeing Boers have gone to the Free State by Muller's pass, others have gone to Wakkerstroom. Most of them, however, have gone north as a disorganized

News From Buller.

The war office has received the fol-lowing dispatch from General Buller, dated New Castle, May 19: "General Clery moved to Ingogo to day and General Dundonald to Laing' Nek. We almost caught up with the tail of the enemy's column and have captured a few prisoners and wagons "The men have marched very well indeed. I left Ladysmith May 10, and, by the road used, am now 138 miles from there."

Bothaville is Taken. Kroonstad, Friday, May 18.-General Hutton, with his mounted infantry today made a dash upon Bothaville and captured three commandants and nineteen prisoners, mostly Zarps, The Colt machine gun section, comi by Atlumney, has arrived here. Owing to the derailing of two trains at the Vet river, progress toward the completion of the railway deviation will be delayed for some days.

DESTROYED PROPERTY TO THE VALUE OF $3,500.

been marked by the absence of dis- Rooming House and Feed Store Burned-Suspicion That it Was of Incendiary Origin.

> (Special to The Heraid.) Mercur, Utah, May 19.-What promised to be a serious fire broke out at scene. There was also some delay in Lady Roberts. getting the streams of water onto the It was seen that the cottage could the water onto the adjoining build-ings. The hay and feed store owned pointed equipage drew along, in which by Isaac Conham, adjoining it at the west, was soon in flames. It spread no farther, however. The next building white and blue. The charming effect on the west, also owned by Conham, of this and similar incidents gave a was soon torn down, and a liberal use victuresque touch to the festivities, of water on the other buildings to the east and to the rear kept the fire from spreading any farther. Conham saved some of his hay and youths collecting money for the var-ous funds connected with the war.

His loss on the two buildings will be played at the Opening Performance of Grand Opera-Carnegie's New House in Scotland Makes the Natives Stand Aghast.

SAVES THE PREMIER

News of Mafeking's Relief Aids

(Copyright, 1900, by the Associated Press.) London, May 19.-The successful turn that affairs have taken in South Africa is the most fortunate for Lord Salisbury, as his weakest point, his Butte, Mont., May 19. — Judge ening, coercing or injuring those Knowles handed down a decision in the United States court today perpetually enjoining the labor unions now boycotting the Chinese.

The defendants are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners intended to injure the Chinamen through the selections or from remaining about the calculations are foreign administration, had threatened to become an all too prominent topic. The news that Russia has secured a coal depot at Corea, as announced May 18 in a dispatch to the Times from Perpetually the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners intended to injure the Chinamen through the selections of the transparencies or banners in the coal depot at Corea, as announced May 18 in a dispatch to the Times from Perpetually the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculations are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculation are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculation are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculation are forbidden to carry or haul transparencies or banners in the Chinamen through the calculation are forbidden to carry or haul transpa The injunction is sweeping. It restrains all persons from combining or conspiring to injure or destroy the other unfortunate instance of the premier's utter incapability to instruct British interests in the far east. Among se who study Chinese questions, the belief obtains that Russia's latest move is a direct breach of contract with, a blow against Great Britain, and Japan, which brings these nations face to face with a grave crisis which pusil-linamous disloyalty will neither amend nor destroy.

The Globe, for instance, openly advocates immediately sending a powerful fleet to Corea, and bluntly demanding that Russia forego the advantages she is alleged to have secured in contravention with the agreements of 1881. However, though the important organs are in a bad humor over the matter, it is said on good authority that Lord Salisbury has much too keen an appreciation of Great Britain's present troubles to take any alarming action in the immediate future, and that he only the college and returning the queen contemplates diplomatic inquiries and was greeted enthusiastically by the passive aid to Japan in the protests she will doubtless make.

Indian's Sad Condition.

George Hamilton, has granted the Associated Press permission to inspect the unpublished official correspondence up to date in his department dealing with the Indian famine. Now and again there is revealed by reason of the very London, May 20, 4:15 a. m.—Last strength of terse verblage and official night's court circular contains the folof suffering which columns of vivid description could scarcely convey. with the greatest gratification and What, for instance, could better tell thankfulness the news of the relief of the tale of sorrow than the following Mafeking after a heroic defense of over seven months by Colonel Baden-Powell and troops under his command.

"The significance of this, which re"The significance of this, which rein Rajpootana? With careful regard "Kherwera-Crops-Practically nil." "Water-Hardly any." "Cattle-All dead.

"Fodder-None. "People-Thriftless class dead. People with small means at end of their resources and either on relief works or "Crime-Abnormal." From all the commissioners of the of enthusiastic jubilation over the re-lief of Mafeking at various points in One resident of Rajpootani reports that day, traversing exceedingly mountain- In the course of a cheery report, the ous country. Commandant Olivier's resident of Western Rajpootani excommando is several days ahead of him, but stray patrols of Boers are cord 3,667 deaths as occuring in the famine camps,, and poor houses in the comparatively small state of Marwar during March, while another resident supplements this ghastly record of wholesale mortality by remarking that at Dhaulers, out of 30,000 persons congregated around the relief works, 1,719 have died between February 23 and March 25 and this has no bearing on the inroads of the plague or cholera. From the latter cause, 571 died at Naghpoore during March. Millions in Jewelry.

($30,000,000) was represented in jewelry among the audience at the opening been repeatedly announced that he will night of Grau's opera. Yet, the most brilliant night of the week so far as costumes and enthusiasm are con-cerned, was the one which was made notable by Mme. Calve's first appearance this season as Carmen, Friday, May 18, though many of the royalties were detained at Windsor by the christening of the son of the Duke and Duchess of York. The Duke and Duchess of Fife, Earl and Countess Cadogan, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley-Martin, Lady Randolph Churchill, Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and many other prominent Americans were present. The presence of the Princess Wales at a performance of "Quo Vadis" this week seems to have the ef-fect of turning the tide of fortune to-wards that production, in spite of the press attacks. E. S. Willard to Reappear.

Franklin McLeay, a young Canadian long identified with Beerbohm Tree's successes, has the support of the Canadian high commissioner, Strathcona and Mount Royal and many other prominent colonials in a matinee which McLeay is arranging to take place at the Drury Lane June 19, for the benefit of the Ottawa fire sufferers. Sir Henry Irving has cabled his intention to participate and E. S. Willard will reappear for the first time in two Tree are to do the third act of "George, don't stare at Mr. Crumley that way. It isn't polite."

"Twas just waitin' to see him pick up his glass of water, ma. I heard pa tell you that he drinks like a fish." years, on the same occasion. Leav and been such a success in Berlin and Vienna. He will present the play in New York in the fall with Mrs. Leslie Carter in the leading role. "Bobs" Wants "Bath Oliver's."

According to the latest story going the rounds "Bobs" fights on "Bath 10 o'clock this evening. It started in Olivers." These are not a new fangled the Cottage rooming house, occupied form of compressed ration, but a simple by Annabel O'Neil, and owned by Pat looking biscuit made at Bath, the first mullens. The fire spread with such recipe for which is credited to the cele-Mullens. The fire spread with such brated Dr. Oliver, a friend of the pope remarkable rapidity that the entire building was enveloped in flames before the fire department was on the large supply of these and since has sent for more, which were taken by

Buller Gets Castor Oil.

Regarding General Buller and his supplies, there is also an interesting anecdote current. Buller, it appears, telegraphed from Natal to some wine Denver and Chicago of merchants to send out fifty cases of ton's Chicago Special. champagne, marked "Castor Oil." The Pullman Compa About the time the wine was due, Buller wired the officer in charge of the fifty cases of castor oil, which he wish- restful to the eye. Nothing cheap, or ed dispatched without delay. ficer at the base replied, regretting the cases had not arrived, but saying he had procured all the available castor oil, twenty cases, which he had forwarded in the hope it would suffice for the present. General Buller's remarks are not recorded. Wonder at Carnegie's House.

The Highland people are wondering hugely at the amount of steel Mr. Andrew Carnegie is using in the erection Salt Lake City to Omaha and Chicago of his addition to Skibo castle. sleepy hollowers have never before seen TICKET OFFICE, a building so constructed. All comes from Pittsburg. Skibe is now locally London, May 19.—The king of the dubbed "Iron castle."

Selgians has arrived in England on a lt is said a mason mistook the millionaire for some poor visitor and pat-

If you have it you know t. You know all about the heavy feeling in the stomach, the nausea, sick headache, and general weakness. You can't have it a week without your blood being impure, your nerves exhausted, and your liver sluggish.

makes the blood pure, strengthens the digestion, and tones up the nerves. And Ayer's Pills will arouse the sluggish liver and cure ? your constipation.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"After suffering terribly with dyspepsia, I tried your Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, and now feel like a new man. I would advise all my fellow creatures to try this medicine."

I. D. GOOD,

Jan. 30, 1899. Browntown, Va.

Write the Doctor—If you have any com-plaint whatever, write us all about it. You, will receive the best medical advice free. Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass. ronized him. On learning his identity he excused himself saying, he "Ought to wear better clothes so that people may be able to tell who you are." War Waged on Croker. One of the curious features of the last few days is the persistency with which the Express has kept up a cam-paign against Mr. Richard Croker of New York. Unlike the Duke of Orleans,

Mr. Croker remains serenely impas-LURED FROM COLORADO.

Many Miners From Cripple Creek Leave For Nome.

Seattle, Wash., May 19.-Fully 100 Coloradans took passage on the two steamers leaving today for Cape Nome. Among others were Captain C. V. The secretary of state for India, Lord Noble, one of the most extensive operators in the Cripple Creek district, and T. B. McNeil, a prominent Leadville miner Captain Noble estimates that Cripple Creek alone will contribute 700 to the Cape Nome rush.

Five hundred persons left for Nome

today on the steamers Cleveland and Alliance, which had every berth sold. water front was packed all day with departing argonauts and their friends, and not even the rush to the Klondike of two years ago exceeded the jam of the last week. The Senator, with 500 passengers, will sail for the north tomorrow and the Oregon, with 600, will get away in the afternoon. The Aberdeen, Caronne and Lakme will depart early in the week. San Francisco, May 19.—Four vessels sailed today for Alaska, the steamers Homer, Nome City, San Blas and Centennial The region of the control of the control tennial. The passengers of the Homer will leave the vessel at Dutch habor as the vessel is under contract to carry mail to all Alaskan points. The Nome City only took away about a dozen passengers. From here eighteen persons died of starvation in passengers and freight for Nome. The she will load freight and passengers Nome direct, with 750 passengers; the Sequoia will get away Tuesday and then every day thereafter for a week

> AHMED PASHA ARRIVES. Turkish Admiral May Come to Settle

one or more steamers will join the rush to the north.

Claims. New York, May 19.-Admiral Ahmed Pasha of Turkey arrived here last It is estimated that £6,000,000 sterling night on the Hamburg-American steamship Augusta Victoria. It has visit Washington for the purpose of arranging a settlement of the claims for $100,000, growing out of the destruction of the property of American missionaries in Turkey. According to some accounts, he expected to compromise the claims of the missionaries under cover of the purchase of a warship for Turkey while in the United States.

Ahmed Pasha left the steamer in company with two men. One of the men is believed to be the Turkish consul in this city. FENIAN PLOT FOILED.

Warning Given of Plan to Blow Up British Works.

Chicago, May 19 .- A special to the Times-Herald from Vancouver, B. C., says: Fenian sympathizers with tha says: Fenian sympathizers with the Boers have made an attempt to blow up the British fortifications at Esquimalt. The big naval docks, where $7.000,000 damages could have been done, were the objective point of the leaders in the plot, who barely escaped from the guard with their lives. Major Bennett of the Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles was warned in time, and he frustrated the plot.

At the Dinner Table.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

Burlington

These are the names of the four new sleepers now in service between Denver and Chicago on the Burling-

The Pullman Company never built finer cars than these. They are fincase, notifying him that he expected ished in natural woods-rich, tasteful, gaudy, or flashy, about THESE carsthey're for Burlington travelers.

Leave Denver at 4 o'clock this af-ternoon on the Chicago Special, and at 6:45 tomorrow morning you are in Omaha; at 8:30 tomorrow evening in Chicago. Equally fast time, equally good service, to St. Joseph and St. Tickets at all R. G. W. ticket offices

214 South West Temple St.

R. F. NESLEN

General Agent, Salt Lake City.